Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Mavis Potter has dedicated the past 30 years to serving the health needs of South Dakotans; and,

Whereas, Mavis was a mainstay for the Department of Health in the Northern Hills region, first working in the Deadwood office and later moving to the Spearfish office; and,

Whereas, Mavis enjoyed all aspects of delivering public health care, especially home health care services to the extent that she delivered care with a private home health agency during her evening and weekend hours; and,

Whereas, Mavis has been active in the Northern Hills community, including serving as president of Spearfish Area Child Protection Team for several years, and as a long-standing member of the Northern Hills Interagency Coalition; and,

Whereas, Mavis is genuinely loved by her clients and colleagues alike; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 28, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and colleagues in the Department of Health in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
